Hollywood & Vine, Napa Valley (California) Cabernet Sauvignon "2480" 2007 ($83)

"Celia Welch is the consulting winemaker for Hollywood & Vine, and her wines typically show uncommon grace and suppleness. This wine is in that mold, with layers of complexity unfolding with each sip (forest floor, mint, cedar, cranberry, cassis, mocha and cigar box). It has fabulous structure, supple tannins and elegant yet mouth-filling texture. The finish is long and refreshing, thanks to pert acidity. The label alcohol content is 14.7%, yet there is no trace of palate heat. This is a superbly balanced wine from a sometimes under-the-radar Napa producer." 96 Linda Murphy
