2001-2005 Cabernet Sauvignon Tasting Notes- A Synopsis

2001

Pimrae Vineyard Mount Veeder, Beckstoffer Tokalon Estate in Oakville.
Deep notes of ripe blackberries and dark plums accented by aromas of tea and sweet anise. Drink now – 2021

2002

Pimrae Vineyard Mount Veeder, JJ Cohn Estate in Rutherford, Old Federal Station in Oakville.
An abundance of ripe blackberry and black currant aromas punctuated with bright plums, sweet vanilla and soft cocoa tones.
Drink now – 2018

2003

Pimrae Mt. Veeder, Old Federal Station in Oakville, J.J. Cohn Estate in Rutherford, and high atop Spring Mountain.
The finished wine accentuates its bold multi-faceted origins. Ripe wild plums dominate the aromas, while toasty spice and vanilla tones compliment the mouth filling purple fruit character. Texturally, the wine is broad and rich on the palate as plum, blackberry, clove and earthy notes dance together in a cohesive, complex expression of the variety. Drink now – 2025

2004

Pimrae Mt. Veeder, the Old Federal Station in Oakville, J.J. Cohn estate in Rutherford, and from the Spring Mountain slopes.
Bright black cherry and blackberry notes from Oakville and Rutherford dominate the aromas, as Spring Mountain's trademark ripe plum and cedar/forest floor notes add complexity. Structurally, the wine shows the density of hillside fruit from Mt. Veeder and Spring Mountain, as well as the supple tannins of the benchland vineyards. Drink now – 2022

2005

Pimrae Mt. Veeder, the Old Federal Station in Oakville, J.J. Cohn estate in Rutherford, Le Herradura, and from the Spring Mountain slopes.
Juicy black cherry and raspberry notes from Oakville and Rutherford dominate the aromas, as Spring Mountain's trademark purple plum, mocha, and sweet black olive notes add complexity. Drink now-2025
